The Default Attorney Group Welcomes
New Member Rubin Lublin, LLC and Returning Member, Reisenfeld & Associates

May 07, 2018 – The Default Attorney Group (“DAG”), a consortium of leading creditor rights law firms from across the United States, welcomes Rubin Lublin, LLC and Reisenfeld & Associates to its membership.

Rubin Lublin, LLC will bring expertise for the states of Georgia, Tennessee, Alabama, and Mississippi. Formed in 2009, their commitment to personalization and professionalism make them ideal members to collaborate with and serve our client base. Reisenfeld & Associates are returning as members representing the states of Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, and West Virginia. Their leadership and contributions were and are vital to the growth of DAG and we’re excited to have their renewed commitment.

“We are proud to welcome Rubin Lublin and Reisenfeld & Associates to DAG—they will add great knowledge and expertise, and add to the robust training and services that DAG provides to our industry.” stated Tom Fritzlen, Shareholder at Martin Leigh PC and President of DAG’s Managing Members.

“We are honored to become part of the DAG group, as each of its member firms have a rich history and have cemented their status at the very forefront of our industry.” said Glen Rubin, Managing Partner at Rubin Lublin, LLC.

Brad Reisenfeld, managing partner at Reisenfeld & Associates commented, “Reisenfeld and Associates is proud to become a member of DAG. We are excited to partner with such a great group of industry leading firms to help provide training and other services to our clients. DAG represents the finest of law firms in the default servicing industry. ”
